LOCATION

Situated in the heart of the renowned book town of Hay-on-Wye, the property enjoys a convenient position within this much-loved market town.
Famous for its independent bookshops, welcoming cafés, restaurants and annual literary festival, Hay-on-Wye offers a wonderful blend of character, community and culture.
Surrounded by the beautiful countryside of the Wye Valley and the nearby Bannau Brycheiniog National Park, the area is particularly appealing to those who enjoy walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits.

ACCOMMODATION

On entering the property, a welcoming entrance hall provides an inviting first impression, complete with a fitted window seat and useful boot storage.

A door to the left opens into the light and bright kitchen/dining room, fitted with a range of wall and base units, drainer sink, integrated electric hob, oven and extractor fan. There is additional space for a freestanding fridge, plumbing for a washing machine and room for a dining table. Patio doors open directly onto the garden, creating a lovely connection between indoor and outdoor living.

The sitting room is a comfortable and naturally light living space, featuring two windows, a useful television shelf and fitted book shelving.

The staircase rises from the entrance hall to the first-floor landing, providing access to two good-sized double bedrooms and the family bathroom.

One of the bedrooms enjoys skylight windows with attractive views across the town, adding character and natural light.

The family bathroom comprises a close-coupled WC, wash basin and paneled bath with shower over.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached through an archway into a communal parking area, where there are two allocated parking spaces. A gate provides access to the garden, which is enclosed by wooden close-panel fencing and is predominantly laid to level lawn.
